

Acting in Hope:

Prayers and witness to a safer world
for women and girls

Online prayer meeting – 10 December, 2025

Sponsored by the Anglican Peace and Justice Network, International Anglican Family Network, International Anglican Women's Network

You are invited to our online prayer meeting as we observe International Human Rights Day and the annual end of the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence.

Prayer and action are central to the life and witness of the Anglican Communion. This online gathering will feature regional speakers on the challenges, work being done, and hope for the well-being of women and girls.

- Liberia (speaker, Ernest Cajuste - Senior program officer, Episcopal Relief and Development)
- India (speaker, Revd Moumita Biswas - Human rights worker, Calcutta, Church of North India)
- Papua New Guinea (speaker Thelma Guni - Assistant to the Primate, Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea)

Join us in shared prayer and commitment to actions that can bring about a hopeful future for women and girls, and for all. Everyone is welcome.

What to Expect

Scripture, prayers, hymns, and music from the sponsoring Anglican networks and more.

Time for Reflection and Response Participants will have an opportunity to add their prayer requests as we come together as a global community of faith.
